BOSTON, October 13.

AT a Meeting of the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the Town of Boston, legally qualified and warned in Public Town-Meeting, assembled at Faneuil-Hall on Wednesday the 8th Day of October, A. D. 1766.

UPON a Motion made and seconded, the following Vote was passed unanimously, viz.

WHEREAS his Excellency the Governor has been pleased lately to convene before him in Council, Stephen Greenleaf, Esq; Sheriff of the County of Suffolk, William Sheafe, Esq; Deputy-Collector, and Benjamin Hallowell, Esq; Comptroller of his Majesty's Customs for the Port of Boston, and sundry other Persons Inhabitants of this Town, and to administer Oaths to the same Persons, and to take their Depositions in Writing relating to the Proceedings of those Officers, and the Behaviour of a Number of People, while those Officers were in search of contraband Goods pretended to be in the Dwelling-House of Captain Daniel Malcomb of this Town; which same Depositions, it is said, contain Opinions, Representations and Assertions which, taken by themselves, and unaccompanied with a full and true Representation of that Affair, may be construed in such a Manner as greatly to affect and prejudice the Trade, Commerce, and Reputation of this Metropolis, and of the Province in general.-----And whereas it has been suggested that the same Testimonies, contrary to the Advice of his Majesty's Council, are about to be transmitted Home, although not suffered to be recorded, but kept from public View:

VOTED, That the Hon. James Otis, Esq; Moderator, Joseph Jackson, Esq; Samuel Sewall, Esq; John Hancock, Esq; William Phillips, Esq; Mr. Timothy Newell, John Rowe, Esq; Mr. Samuel Adams and Joshua Henshaw, Esq; be a Committee to wait on his Excellency the Governor in Behalf of the Town, and to desire he would be pleased to give the Secretary Orders to furnish the Town-Clerk with Copies of all the Depositions relating to the Informations given the Custom-House Officers, and the Proceedings thereon, that so the Town having Knowledge of their Accusers, and of the Nature and Design of the Testimonies taken, may have it in their Power to rectify Mistakes, and counterwork the Designs of any who would represent them in a disadvantageous Light to his Majesty's Ministers.*

The Town then took under Consideration the Clause in the Warrant respecting the Sufferers in the Month of August 1765, and passed the following Vote unanimously, and then adjourned to three o'clock Afternoon.

WHEREAS the Inhabitants of this Town have ever held the violent Outrages of Persons unknown in the late Times of Distress in the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence, and from a Sense of Duty, as well as just Indignation at the Ravages committed on the Properties of divers of their Fellow-Subjects and Citizens on the 26th of August 1765, took the earliest Opportunity to exert their strenuous Endeavours, in Aid of the Civil Authority, to restore Peace, Order and Tranquility; which were accordingly in one Day restored, and have been ever since preserved. And whereas his Majesty has been pleased only to recommend it to the General Assembly of this Province to make up the Losses of the Sufferers in the late unhappy Times, although his Excellency the Governor has thought fit to interpret the same as a Requisition so peremptory and authoritative as to preclude not only all Controversy and Debate, but even Deliberation with Regard to a Compliance.----From no Regard to said Interpretation, but in dutiful Respect to the mild Recommendation of our most gracious Sovereign, in Humanity and Generosity towards those Gentlemen who have suffered in a Manner that no Man ought, especially in a State of Civil Society: VOTED, That on the Application of such Sufferers to the General Assembly in a Parliamentary Way, the Representatives of this Town be directed, and they are accordingly directed in their best Discretion to use their Influence, that such Losses be made up, as far as may be, in a Manner the most loyal and respectful with Regard to his Majesty, the most Constitutional and Safe with Regard to our invaluable Rights and Privileges, and the most humane and benevolent with Regard to the Sufferers.

Three o'Clock, P. M. The Committee appointed in the Forenoon to wait upon his Excellency reported, That they had accordingly waited upon his Excellency, and presented him with a Copy of the Vote of the Town: Whereupon his Excellency was pleased to say, That by Order of Council, the Depositions mentioned were to be kept secret; but that he should take Advice of Council, and if they should advise him, he had in himself no Difficulty as to complying with the Request of the Town.

After which the Town-Clerk having received the following Vote of Council, together with the Copies of said Depositions, laid them before the Town.---The Vote of Council is as follows,

In COUNCIL, October 8, 1766.

A Committee of the Town of Boston, having laid before his Excellency in Council the Copy of a Vote of the said Town passed this Day in Town-Meeting, desiring Copies of certain Depositions taken in Council, relative to the Proceedings of the Sheriff of the County of Suffolk, the Deputy-Collector of the Customs, and the Comptroller for the Port of Boston, and the Behaviour of a Number of People while those Officers were in Search for contraband Goods; his Excellency thereupon took the Advice of Council, who advised, that the Secretary have Leave to give out the Copies aforesaid. But inasmuch as it is suggested in the said Vote that the said Testimonies, contrary to the Advice of his Majesty's Council, are about to be transmitted Home, altho' not suffered to be recorded, but kept from public View:

Advised and Ordered, That the Secretary acquaint the said Committee that the Council have never given any Advice either for or against the said Testimonies being transmitted, and that no Copies have been as yet taken out of the Office.

A true Copy from the Council Minutes,
Attest. John Cotton, D. Sec'ry.

The above Vote of Council, together with the Depositions being read, the Town came into the following Vote.

VOTED, That the Hon. James Otis, Esq; Mr. Samuel Adams, John Rowe, Esq; John Hancock, Esq; Mr. Edward Paine, Mr. Edmund Quincy, Tertius, Joshua Henshaw, Esq; be a Committee to take these Depositions into Consideration; to procure such Evidences as may be further necessary, to set this Matter in its true Light, and report the same at the Adjournment of this Meeting, together with their Opinion what may be further necessary to be done by the Town in order to prevent the ill Consequences that may arise by Means of a partial Representation.

Then the Town adjourned to Wednesday the 22d Instant, X o'clock, A. M.

THE above are true Copies, and published by Order of the Town.

Attest. WILLIAM COOPER, Town-Clerk.

PORTSMOUTH, October 6.

Last Friday Night a large Wolfe killed 15 or 16 Sheep within a quarter of a Mile of this Town, some of which were on Sevey's Island: and on Saturday in the Forenoon, in attempting to swim a-cross the River to this Town, was met by one Mr. Carter, a Fisherman, in a small Canoe, coming in from Fishing, who immediately struck a small Spear which he had in his Canoe, into his Body, then cut off his Head and bro't it on Shore, for which he has received a Bounty of Ten Dollars, out of the Treasury.

As an Instance of the plenty there is like to be of Indian Corn this Year, three Ears of which, the produce of one Carnel was lately gathered off the Farm of John Plumer, Esq; in Rochester, which produced 1650 Carnels.

GILBERT DEBLOIS just arrived from London in Capt. Freeman, begs Leave to inform his Customers in Town and Country, that he has brought with him a General Assortment of English and India GOODS suitable for the Season; also choice Bohea and Hyson Tea, by the Chest or smaller Quantity, Spices, Currants, best Poland Starch, choice Cheshire Cheese, Loaf Sugar, Split Peas, Gun-Powder, German Steel, best London Wool and Cotton Cards, Russia Duck, Sheathing and Drawing Nails, neat genteel Sconce Glasses, &c. &c. &c.

N. B. The above GOODS will be Sold by Wholesale and Retail, very cheap for ready Money, at the Shop lately improved by Mr. William Tyng opposite School-Street, near the Rev. Dr. Sewall's Meeting-House.

NOW in the PRESS,
And soon will be published,

THE New-England ALMANACK, or Lady's and Gentleman's DIARY, for the Year of our Lord Christ, 1767. Calculated for the Meridian of BOSTON.

By BENJAMIN WEST, Philomath.

Sold by R. & S. Draper, Edes & Gill, Green and Russell, and T. & J. Fleet.

☞ Mr. West has for several Years past published an Almanack in a neighbouring Colony to great Acceptation, and as the Printers here could have no Dependance on any Person for a Copy the ensuing Year, they applied to him. Mr. West assures the Public, he has taken great Care that his Calculations for this Meridian, are exact.

N. B. Those Persons on any of the Roads who have set up new Stages, or removed to old ones, and have not sent in their Names, are requested to do it forthwith, free of Charge, to R. & S. Draper, Printers, that they may be compleated.

Giles Alexander

Hereby informs the Proprietors who own Lands granted them by the Government of New-Hampshire, lying on the West side of Connecticut River, that he is returned from New York to this Town; and therefore desires those Persons who employed him to meet him at his Dwelling-House in Boston, on Monday the 13th Instant, or any Day in the Week, where he will inform them upon what Terms their Lands will be confirmed to them by the Government of New York.—They are desired to be as speedy as possible, as he is obliged to return in about a Fortnight to New York.

From the St. James's Chronicle, June 10, 1766.

To the Printer of the S. J. CHRONICLE.

SIR,

WHEN in the Reign of a late Tory-Miniſtry, the Humiliation of America was determined, it would not have been decent for the Projectors to exclude their truſty Friends, the High-Churchmen, from a Share of Deſpotism over their new Subjects, in their own peculiar Way. Accordingly the Stamping and Epiſcopizing our Colonies were underſtood to be only different Branches of the ſame Plan of Power. For the Stampers it was ſufficient to procure the Sanction of a Law; after which, all Reaſoning upon the Equity or Expedience of the Meaſure might be ſpared. But Churchmen, who cannot always carry their Points with the ſame Tranquility that Stateſmen do, are expected to prepare the People for the Reception of their Impoſitions, by ſomething which has the Appearance of Reaſoning. It is an hard Neceſſity indeed, and liable to many Inconveniences; for as they are obliged, on theſe Occaſions, to wear a Maſk of Piety and Moderation, ſome impertinent Examiner or other is often miſchievous enough to ſhove it aſide, and expoſe the naked Countenance of the Orator to the Contemplation of the rude Multitude.

Thus in the Pleadings for ſending Biſhops to America, it was urged as an Argument for that Meaſure, that Popiſh Biſhops go about here, and exerciſe every Part of their Function without Offence, and without Obſervation. This was a Piece of Intelligence which perfectly aſtoniſhed the good People of England. Some were inclined to demur to the Fact. Others, who conſidered the unqueſtionable Authority from which it was ſuppoſed to come, expreſſed their Surpriſe at the wrong Policy which permitted this pernicious Practice with Impunity. But a certain North-American Examiner, (Dr. Mayhew) who carried his Reflections a little deeper than the Surface, from this Circumſtance of contriving at Popiſh Biſhops, fairly accounted for the great Number of Proſelytes gained over to Popery in Great Britain, ſince this ſlumbering Policy took Place.

The Application of this Reaſoning was too fatal to American Epiſcopacy to be paſſed by, where Tory Churchmen had ſo precious a Morſel in View. And accordingly a Reviewer of Dr. Mayhew's Remarks, (one Mr. Apthorpe) was ſet to work, who made it his Buſineſs to ſhew that "Proſelyting was no Part of the peculiar Function of Biſhops, but was properly the Work of inferior Prieſts; that the Popiſh Biſhops in England were too few to make many Proſelytes; that the peculiar Functions of theſe Biſhops conſiſted in ordaining and viſiting the inferior Clergy, and confirming the Youth of their own Communion; that the Argument of the Author whom he undertook to defend, led him only to mention theſe peculiar Parts of the Function of Biſhops; and laſtly, that whoever extended this Connivance to all, or any other Functions of Popery, miſrepreſented the Meaning of his Client."

As this poor Sophiſtry ſeems to be calculated to cover the ſhameful Neglect ſomewhere of counteracting the Efforts of Popery as well as to countenance the impolitic and very unedefying Scheme of epiſcopizing America, a little Room in your Chronicle is requeſted for the following Remarks upon it.

1. In the firſt Place, the Anſwerer of Dr. Mayhew's Obſervations, who firſt announced to the Public this unmoleſted Aſſiduity of Popiſh Biſhops, appears to be a much abler Writer than Mr. Apthorpe, and to have no Sort of Occaſion for Mr. Apthorpe's Aid to make his Meaning more intelligible than it is in his own Words.

2. With Reſpect to the fewneſs of Popiſh Biſhops in England, and their Conſequence in the Buſineſs of Proſelyting, Mr. Apthorpe, by conſulting the St. James's Chronicle of May 15, 1766, may be informed how that Caſe ſtood, when his own Hopes, and thoſe of his Client, of carrying their American Point were at the higheſt, and when probably both their Pamphlets were penned.

3. How is it poſſible to conceive, that Popiſh Biſhops ſhould go about and exerciſe every Part of their Function, while any Reſtraint is put upon any Function, of any of their inferior Clergy? For,

4. When Popiſh Biſhops viſit their Prieſts, do they put no Queſtions to them concerning their Succeſs in making Proſelytes? Do they give them no Directions, or Encouragement, with Reſpect to that Sort of Work? And do not ſuch Inquiries and Directions as properly belong to the Epiſcopal Function of viſiting their Clergy, as any other Inquiries or Directions whatever? Again,

5. When Popiſh Biſhops confirm the Youth of their Communion, do they confirm no Proſelytes among them? Do they confirm ſuch Perſons without knowing them to be Proſelytes? And is it to be ſuppoſed that the Anſwerer of Dr. Mayhew's Obſervations, &c. is as ignorant of all this, as Mr. Apthorpe pretends to be? And if the Papiſts think as highly of Confirmation, as Mr. Apthorpe, and ſome others do, who want to have Biſhops ſent to New-England, will not inferior Popiſh Prieſts think theſe Opportunities of having their Proſelytes confirmed, a great Advantage in the Buſineſs of making them? And do the Papiſts think a Proſelyte properly finiſhed, before he is confirmed?

6. Miſrepreſentations are of two Sorts. Firſt, when an Author's Words are ſtrained to a worſe Senſe than they will naturally bear. Secondly, when they are gloſſed into a ſofter and better Senſe, than they naturally and obviouſly import. In either Caſe the indifferent Reader is equally impoſed upon. And it now only remains for ſuch Readers (to whom we appeal) to judge, whether the Miſrepreſentations of the Anſwerer's Words is not greater on the Part of Mr. Apthorpe, by excluding the Buſineſs of making Proſelytes from every Part of the Function of a Popiſh Biſhop, than on the Part of Dr. Mayhew, and others, who think that all and every the Functions of Popery, Proſelyting, as well as others, are naturally, and indeed neceſſarily included in the Exerciſe of every Part of the Function of a Popiſh Biſhop.

I am, Sir, your's, &c.

CHARLESTOWN, (South-Carolina,)

Sept. Advices from St. Auguſtine, dated the 23d paſt, inform us, That the Garriſon of that Fortreſs had been very ſickly for ſome Time, and continued to be ſo; that there were not more than two Officers able to do Duty; and that Captain John Willion, commanding the Royal Artillery there, died the Day before after a few Days Illneſs.

Sept. 16. By Letters from the Cherokee County, we are informed, That the White People mentioned in our laſt, were killed by a Party of Northward Indians, who ſtill continue their Incurſions againſt the Cherokees, notwithſtanding the Steps taken by Sir William Johnſon, and Mr. Steuart, to effect a Peace between them. The Son of Attakullakulla, and ſeven others, his Relations, were lately killed by a Party who fell upon them as they were picking Berries at a ſmall Diſtance from their Habitations. Ouconnoſtota, or the Great-Warrior, and ſeveral other Headmen, were lately at Fort Prince-George on a Viſit to Mr. Price the Commandant, who delivered and explained to them a Talk from the Superintendant, relating among other Things, to the War between the Creeks and Choctaws: Ouconnoſtota ſaid they were both Rogues, and might fight it out between themſelves. It appeared the Creeks had been tampering with the Cherokees, in order to induce them to take Part with them againſt the Choctaws.

PHILADELPHIA, October 2.

Extract of a Letter from London, Aug. 9, 1766.

"We are very much concerned to hear Mr. Franklin's Character is called in Queſtion, on Account of the Part he acted the laſt Seſſion of Parliament; ſo far from being an Abettor of the Stamp-Act, his Evidence, at the Bar of the Houſe, was allowed to be one of the ſtrongeſt, and moſt ſatisfactory, in Favour of the Repeal, and of the Colonies; and we are firmly perſuaded, his utmoſt Endeavours were at all Times exerted to that End, having been Eye-witneſſes of his Aſſiduity, in attending the Committees of the Merchants, and of his public Behaviour at different Times, in the two laſt Seſſions of Parliament. Sargent, Chambers, & Co."

Tueſday laſt Capt. Tabary arrived here from Martineco, and adviſes, that there were 39 Sail of Engliſh Veſſels either loſt or run aſhore in the late Hurricane there; That he lay in the Harbour of Cul de Sac Francois, with two other Veſſels, where they rode out the Hurricane, without receiving any Damage.---He ſays it was computed that 150 Veſſels were intirely loſt, beſides about 200 Freight and Paſſage Boats; that the Hurricane was rather ſeverer, and the Loſs greater, than mentioned in the Martineco Gazettee: And that as ſoon as the General's and Intendant's Permiſſions for Proviſions were iſſued, Flour arrived in ſuch Plenty from all Parts, that it fell to 45 and 40 Shillings a Barrel, which obliged ſome Veſſels from Barbados to go to the Engliſh Iſlands.

Captain Smith from Liverpool, on the 3d of September, in Lat. 39: 38, Long. 62: 19, met with a very hard Gale of Wind, which laſted about 30 Hours, ſhifting all round the Compaſs; it came on ſo ſudden, that it ſplit all the Sails he had ſet. About 2 or 3 Days after he ſaw a Long-boat bottom upwards, and ſeveral Maſts, Yards, Hencopps, &c. floating along by him.

Capt. Robinſon, in the Ship Prince George from London, on the 24th of Auguſt, in Lat. 28: 53, Long. 33, paſſed by a Wreck; one of the Maſt Heads above Water, the Top under the Surface, but to be ſeen; by the Thickneſs of the Maſt Heads he judged her to be about 200 Tons Burthen.

Capt. Caton from Leghorn, on his Paſſage the 15th of Auguſt ſpoke with the Schooner Dolphin, from Boſton to Gibraltar, 14 Days out.

Captain Young from Antigua, but laſt from Bermuda, on the 15th ult. in Lat. 33, Long. 65, ſpoke Capt. Campbell, in a Sloop, from Boſton for Monto-Chriſti, out 12 Days, all well.

At the Court of Oyer and Terminer, and General Goal Delivery, held at the State-Houſe laſt Week, Abraham Ryall was tried for Burglary, and found Guilty.---John Criſt was alſo indicted for Burglary, to which he pleaded Guilty.---They both received Sentence of Death, as did Dennis Scanlan, for a Highway Robbery, mentioned in our laſt.

NEW-YORK, October 2.

Monday laſt being the Anniverſary for the Appointment of the Civil Magiſtrates, &c. of this City, John Cruger, Eſq; late Mayor, reſigned his Office, and we hear Whitehead Hicks, Eſq; is appointed in his Stead.

By Mr. Browne, from Martineco, we have the following Particulars of the Hurricane that happened there the the 12th of Auguſt laſt:

About Eight at Night the Wind blew very hard at N. W. and with a little Variation continued increaſing till between Eleven and Twelve, when it blew the moſt dreadful Storm that was remembered there, attended with Lightning and hard Rain. Before the Storm was at the Height, about Eleven o'Clock, every Veſſel at St. Pierre was either ſunk or driven aſhore; about 23 French Droggers were daſhed to Pieces and entirely deſtroyed, ſeven Engliſh Veſſels were drove on Shore, and ſome of them beat to Pieces; at Fort-Royal ſix Engliſh Brigs and Sloops were driven on Shore and moſt of them loſt; a Brig of New-Haven, Capt. Douglaſs, loſt her Maſts, and a Boſton Sloop rode out the Gale. The Houſes were unthled, and greatly damaged, ſome of them torn to Pieces and others blown down, with Abundance of Trees, Sugar-Canes, &c. one Houſe was ſaid to be blown into the Sea, with all its Inhabitants. The Number of Lives loſt from the Veſſels, and by the falling of the Tiles, and Houſes, was not then certainly known, ſome ſuppoſed it to be about 500, others 1000 and upwards.

The following is a Liſt of as many of the Engliſh Veſſels as Mr. Brown knew.

Belonging to New-Haven, ſight their Cargoes being landed and ſold: Captain Shelden, a Schooner, drove on Shore, and ſold for 100l. 5s. Capt. Browne, a Sloop, the Captain loſt 26l. 5s. Capt. Sherman, a Brig, chartered by a Frenchman, on Shore.---Capt. Coppinger, a Sloop, belonging to Boſton, loaded with Molaſſes, ready to ſail, beat to Pieces. Capt. Engliſh in a large Schooner, loſt, ſaved 20 Hogſheads of Molaſſes of 100; ſold the Spars for 5 Guineas.---Belonging to the Eaſtward, with Fiſh, a large new Schooner, bilged, not ſold. Belonging to Carolina, a Sloop, with Corn, ſold for 40 or 50l.

An Ordonance was publiſhed giving Liberty to Engliſh Veſſels to import Bread and Flour, paying a Duty of One per Cent.

From the Maryland Gazette, Printed by Jonas Green, Thurſday, Sept. 18, 1766, No. 1097.

As Printer to MARYLAND. I cannot avoid taking Notice of a vile and falſe inſinuation, relating to this Province. This great Advocate for the STAMP-ACT, not content with abuſing, vilifying, and miſrepreſenting the good People of the Province wherein he lives, muſt needs too throw out his baſe Calumniations againſt MARYLAND, by implicitly telling the World, That they had not given one Shilling all the War. Surely this Stickler muſt have "KNOW'D" better, or elſe, to uſe his own Expreſſion, he muſt have been [unacquainted with the Things that have come to Paſs in OUR DAYS.] Had he Read that excellent Pamphlet, entitled CONSIDERATIONS ON THE PROPRIETY OF IMPOSING TAXES, &c. Page 21, he would there have found the LIE flatly given him; and "that Maryland contributed near 50,000l. and incurred beſides a "conſiderable Expence, which is now a Debt "upon the Public Journal of the Colony, by "putting her Militia into actual Service; and "that an unhappy Diſpute, attended with a very "heavy Provincial Charge, on ſome Topic of "Privilege, was the real Cauſe why the Grants "of Maryland were not more liberal."

NEWPORT, October 22.

A Letter from Caſtle Brew, at Annamaboa, on the Coaſt of Africa, to a Gentleman in this Town, dated June 20, 1766, ſays, "Sir, you'l be good enough to acquaint the Merchants trading to this Place, that the Coaſt is very much infeſted with Pirates, and that one, in particular, is a Schooner, copper ſheathed, commanded by one Hide, has on board thirty-four Men, and is extremely well fitted with Swivels and Small-Arms. She cruiſes between the River Settra-Crue and Cape Three-Points, and has taken between 12 and 14 Shallops, one of which belonged to Governor Brew, and had on board 1200l. Sterling in Goods, and 50 Ounces of Gold Duſt: After taking from her a Cable and Anchor, for which they gave the Maſter a Receipt, they permitted him to go about his Buſineſs. Theſe Fellows neither murder or force any into their Service; but on the contrary, one of their Crew complaining that he was weary of that Life, they put him on Shore, and allowed him a Sufficiency to bear his Expences to the firſt Engliſh Factory."

PORTSMOUTH, October 10.

Laſt Monday Night, a ſmall Coaſting Veſſel, belonging to this Town, John Hooker, Maſter, coming round from Boſton, loaded with Engliſh Goods, &c. was unfortunately caſt away off Cape Ann Harbour, where we hear ſhe now lyes in a miſerable Condition, almoſt full of Water; what the Loſs by this Accident will be is yet uncertain.

BOSTON, October 13.

The Superior Court, &c. for the County of Middleſex, is to be held the laſt Tueſday in this Month at Cambridge, not at Concord, as mentioned in the firſt Edition of Ames's Almanack, by ſome Miſtake: There being no Superior Court by Law held at Concord.

Wedneſday laſt ſeveral Braſs Pieces of Cannon, taken at Senegal during the late War, were proved by ſome of the new Artillery Company.

Laſt Night Capt. Maxwell arrived here in 52 Days from Falmouth, but has not bro't one Print, nor any Thing new.

Laſt Friday Night was committed to Goal, for ſtabbing Mr. Iſaac Townſend, one of the Town Watch, a certain William Reach, (a Scotchman) who, 'tis ſaid, about 4 Years ago received his Majeſty's Pardon for the Murder of a Man at Halifax. Mr. Townſend's Wound being only a Fleſh one, 'tis ſaid he will ſoon recover. Thoſe of our Cuſtomers who us'd to be ſerv'd with this Gazette, by Mr. Townſend, are deſired to ſend for them this Day.

The July MAGAZINES.

Providence, an allegorical Poem; in three Books; illuſtrated with Notes. By the Rev. JOHN OGILVIE. Elegantly printed on a fine Writing Paper, Price 6*ſh* and on coarſer Paper 4*ſh*. Book 1ſt entituled, The WORKS OF NATURE—Book 2d. REVEALED RELIGION—Book 3d HUMAN LIFE. The Reader of Taſte, during the Peruſal of this admirable Poem, (which is not inferior to any in the Engliſh Language) will enjoy ineffable Delight in all its Variety. The Deſcription of the beautiful and luxuriant Scenes of Nature, of the genial Seaſons, of the rural Haunts of Innocence and Peace, will now expand the Heart with Joy and now ſoothe it into the tendereſt Complacency —The Strength and Cogency of the Proofs in Favour of Revealed Religion, adorned with all the Graces of Poetry it is hoped will contribute to convince the Judgment, and impreſs the Mind with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude.—The Scenes of Miſery and Diſtreſs incident to Human Life, drawn by the Pen of ſo feeling a Writer, and heightened with the true Colours of Genius, will wring the throbbing Breaſt with Pangs of Commiſeration, will awake all the finer Movements of the Soul, and improve the Reader in the Virtues of Humanity.

Sermons on Practical Subjects. By Robert Walker one of the Miniſters of the High Church of Edinburgh. The Sermons of this Author, (who has long been admired as the beſt Preacher among the Clergy in North Britain) are remarkable for the moſt engaging Simplicity and Elegance of the Expreſſion, which is at the ſame Time conciſe, nervous, pathetic & correct.

An Appeal to common Senſe in Behalf of Religion. By the Rev. Dr. James Oſwald—The Zeal and Eloquence of this Friend of Religion and Common Senſe, will give the finiſhing Blow to the Reveries of both the ancient and modern Philoſophers and Metaphyſicians. The Writings of the Friends of Religion and their Adverſaries, viz. Berkeley, Locke, Dr. Clark, Smith Author of the Theory of Moral Sentiments, Profeſſor Reid, Deſcartes, Lord Kames, Hume, Lord Bolingbroke, Lord Shaftesbury, Mandeville, & Hutcheſon are very juſtly characteriz'd in this excellent Performance.

A Sermon and Letters on ſeveral Points of Importance. by the ſame Author.

Diſſertations on Subjects relating to the Genius and the Evidences of Chriſtianity. By Profeſſor Gerard. Of this Author, who hath now entered the Liſts in Support of Chriſtianity, nothing more need be ſaid, than that he hath lately, in his Eſſay on Taſte, illuſtrated a Subject on which the greateſt modern Writers had employed their Pens, viz. Voltaire, D'Alembert and Monteſquieu.

ORTON's Memoirs of the Life, Character and Writings of the late Rev. Dr PHILIP DODDRIDGE, of Northampton Printed on a fine Paper, and neatly bound, Price 6 s. Every ſerious Chriſtian muſt receive the greateſt Advantage and the moſt ſublime Pleaſure from the Peruſal of the Life of the learned and pious Dr. Doddridge, whoſe Integrity, Humility, affectionate Temper, lively and animated Devotion rendered him one of the moſt ſhining Ornaments of the Church of Chriſt. Mr Orton who undertook this Work at the earneſt Perſuaſion of the Doctor's Friends and the Admirers of his Writings, was enabled to do it not only from a long and intimate Acquaintance, but alſo from being in Poſſeſſion of all the Doctor's Papers, Diary, &c. and he has executed it in ſuch a Manner as to do Honor to himſelf, and Juſtice to the Character and Worth of that truly great Man.

Paradiſe loſt; a new Edition, with the Text exactly printed according to the ingenious and learned Dr. Newton's Edition; and Mr. Fenton's Life of the Author prefixed. There is alſo added, Hiſtorical, Philoſophical, and Explanatory Notes, tranſlated from the French of the learned Raymond St. Maur: together with various critical Remarks by Dr Newton. Mr. Addiſon, Dr. Warburton, Mr. Richardſon, Dr. Pearce, and Dr. Bentley. 2 Vols.

A new Edition of Mrs. Rowe's Friendſhip in Death: Or Letters from the Dead to the Living: to which is prefixed a full Account of her Life and Writings.

A new Edition of the celebrated Mr. John Locke's two Treatiſes on Government.

A new Edition of the ſame Author on Human Underſtanding, 3 Vols. 12*s*.

The ſame Author's Letters concerning Toleration, 4to.

The Merit of Mr. Locke's Works is too well eſtabliſhed to need any Commendation; his Name being famous in all learned Nations.

A new Edition of Dr. Young's Centaur not Fabulous. To which is added the following excellent Pieces by the ſame Author, A Vindication of Providence; or a true Eſtimate of Human Life; in which the Paſſions are conſidered in a new Light. Conjectures on original Compoſition: in which the Characters of the principal Poets are finely drawn. An Eſſay on Lyric Poetry.

Doctor Watts's Lyric Poems. Sacred to Devotion and Piety. To Virtue, Honour and Friendſhip. To the Memory of the Dead.

Butler's Analogy of Religion, natural and revealed, to the Conſtitution and Courſe of Nature.

Mr. Addiſon's Evidences of the Chriſtian Religion: with additional Diſcourſes on the Being and Attributes of God, the Immortality of the Soul, a future State. A new Edition conſiderably enlarged.

The Gentleman inſtructed in the Conduct of a virtuous and happy Life, 2 Vols.

The young Lady conducted; from her leaving the School to her entering upon the World: and her Deportment in Public and Private, eſtabliſhed upon the Principles of Reaſon and Politeneſs: and her Mind formed by Examples, to a Love of Truth, a Reſpect for Virtue, and a Reverence for Religion.

The Rule of Life: containing a true Picture of Human Life, and a Variety of uſeful Reflections, which yield at once both Profit and Pleaſure.

An Account of the Conſtitution and preſent State of Great Britain, with a View of its Trade, Policy, and Intereſt, reſpecting other Nations, and of the principal Curioſities of Great Britain and Ireland: adorned with curious and elegant Cuts.
